

HYDRANT FLUSHING

Tuesday April 3, 2018 and Wednesday April 4, 2018

The Lewes BPW will be flushing fire hydrants on Tuesday, April 3, 2018 beginning at 6:00 am on the town side and Wednesday April 4, 2018 beginning at 5:00 am on the beach side. Water pressure may be low during this period of time. If you should have discolored water, please let your cold water run for a few minutes until it clears. We urge you to note these dates on your calendar.
